JUST A FEW REASONS WHY
GROWING BUSINESSES ARE CHOOSING COMPAQ.

COMPAQ

“WHAT SHOULD I EXPECT WITH COMPUTING TECHNOLOGY FROM COMPAQ?”

Growing your business demands more of many things. More personnel resources. More space. More time. More technology with more power to get business done in less time.

Choosing technology solutions is a decision based on quality, affordability, and unforgiving reliability – as well as an overwhelming desire to make a smart investment that will pay off for years to come. Which is why so many growing businesses confidently choose Compaq.

More of what you need to get more accomplished.

With Compaq, you get more than just hardware. You get a company that is vitally interested in the success of your business. So interested, we go above and beyond to make our computers more functional, compatible with leading technologies, flexible to grow with you – and very easy to use.

Our notebooks are versatile. Our desktops are intelligent. Our servers have room to grow. Our Netelligent Networking Products and Compaq Professional Workstations extend technology to new levels. Each one is designed to maximize your access to information and people around the world – anytime, anyplace – at a lower cost of ownership. Compaq computers will migrate easily to new performance levels and network configurations as needed – which translates into added value and a greater return on your technology investment.

More reliability for peace of mind.

Compaq products combine legendary quality and reliability with advanced features and innovative designs so that your PCs are easy to manage and maintain. Our products are tested against rigorous industry standards, and come with the value of CompaqCare – our three-year limited warranty¹ and 24-hour telephone or on-line technical support. Best of all, you'll have the peace of mind of knowing your high-value hardware and service come from one reliable source.

More support.

Because you're in a world that never stops, you need a support network designed to work the same way. And that's exactly what you get when you rely on Compaq. Whether you need to add one computer or build a complete network environment, Compaq Authorized Resellers can help you before and after your purchase, with sound advice, expert network design, and responsive service.

Compaq Authorized Resellers are carefully chosen and specially trained to support your growing business' technology needs and to help you get the very most out of your investment in Compaq hardware.
