

DATE: January 25, 1985 COPIES:

TO: ALL TYMSHARE/TYMNET MANAGERS

FROM: PATRICIA FOWLER, Managing Editor

SUBJECT: FINAL ISSUE OF TYMSHARE TODAY

A dynamic cover and upbeat editorial content comprise our final issue of TYMSHARE TODAY.

As the Tymshare name fades, McDonnell Douglas Information Systems Group offerings are presented to help our customers and friends make the transition from Tymshare to the new ISG...there is something for everyone:

Financial planners have access to the most up-to-date in financial information with a new system utilizing several of Tymshare's technologies....

Tymshare/McDonnell Douglas and Hewlett Packard--pioneers in high technology--meet at the edge of a new technology: EDI-NET....

Telecommunications is a subject of wide interest--Stanford University's Dr. Donald Dunn, a prominent professor in the Engineering-Economic Systems Department, talks of the telecommunications future in an exclusive interview....

For thespians in the crowd, we offer a story on California's South Coast Repertory and its use of Microdata-donated hardware....

... And for detective movie enthusiasts, read how the New York City Police Department tracks arrested persons and uncovers hardened criminals with the Online Booking System....

Electronic Publishing covers a multitude of technologies. Readers are introduced to just a few in an article overview.

The TYMSHARE TODAY staff hopes you will find this final issue one that is not only impressive, but useful. Please place your orders for TYMSHARE TODAY #13 (PUBS 40) through the Pubs Ordering System...and HAPPY READING!
