

The Communications Revolution
is now at your laundromat
and nine other Berkeley locations.

Community Memory

*invites you to celebrate the launch of the new,
city-wide, public access computer network
with a party at:*

Milt's Coin-Op

3055 Telegraph Avenue (at Webster)
Berkeley

Thursday, February 15, 1990 7-10 p.m.

Since 1977, Community Memory has nurtured a vision of universally accessible, easy-to-use computer networks to enhance community participation.

Join us for food, music, comedy, talk, door prizes.

We'd love to know you're coming: 415-841-1114

This project is supported by funds from the Telecommunications
Education Trust, established by the California Public Utilities Commission.

~~BERKELEY COMMUNITY~~ ~~IS EFFECTIVE~~

Change

Respond

Forum

Share

Act

Cross talk

Participate

Change

Respond

Forums

Share

Act

CrossTalk

Participate

Designer: Susan Graphics

The Communications Revolution
is now at your laundromat
and nine other Berkeley locations.

Community Memory

*invites you to celebrate the launch of the new,
city-wide, public access computer network
with a party at:*

Milt's Coin-Op

3055 Telegraph Avenue (at Webster)
Berkeley

Thursday, February 15, 1990 7-10 p.m.

Since 1977, Community Memory has nurtured a vision of universally accessible, easy-to-use computer networks to enhance community participation.

Join us for food, music, comedy, talk, door prizes.

We'd love to know you're coming: 415-841-1114

This project is supported by funds from the Telecommunications
Education Trust, established by the California Public Utilities Commission.

The Communications Revolution
is now at your laundromat
and nine other Berkeley locations.

Community Memory

*invites you to celebrate the launch of the new,
city-wide, public access computer network
with a party at:*

Milt's Coin-Op

3055 Telegraph Avenue (at Webster)
Berkeley

Thursday, February 15, 1990 7-10 p.m.

Since 1977, Community Memory has nurtured a vision of universally accessible, easy-to-use computer networks to enhance community participation.

Join us for food, music, comedy, talk, door prizes.

We'd love to know you're coming: 415-841-1114

This project is supported by funds from the Telecommunications Education Trust, established by the California Public Utilities Commission.

Change

Respond

Forums

Share

Act

C l o s e . . .

P a r t i c i p a t e . . .

The Communications Revolution
is now at your laundromat
and nine other Berkeley locations.

Community Memory

*invites you to celebrate the launch of the new,
city-wide, public access computer network
with a party at:*

Milt's Coin-Op

3055 Telegraph Avenue (at Webster)

Berkeley

Thursday, February 15, 1990 7-10 p.m.

Since 1977, Community Memory has nurtured a vision of universally accessible, easy-to-use computer networks to enhance community participation.

Join us for food, music, comedy, talk, door prizes.

We'd love to know you're coming: 415-841-1114

This project is supported by funds from the Telecommunications
Education Trust, established by the California Public Utilities Commission.

Community Memory

2617 San Pablo Avenue

Berkeley, CA 94702

415.841.1114

CrossTalk

Participate

The Communications Revolution
is now at your laundromat
and nine other Berkeley locations.

Community Memory

*invites you to celebrate the launch of the new,
city-wide, public access computer network
with a party at:*

Milt's Coin-Op

3055 Telegraph Avenue (at Webster)

Berkeley

Thursday, February 15, 1990 7-10 p.m.

Since 1977, Community Memory has nurtured a vision of universally accessible, easy-to-use computer networks to enhance community participation.

Join us for food, music, comedy, talk, door prizes.

We'd love to know you're coming: 415-841-1114

This project is supported by funds from the Telecommunications Education Trust, established by the California Public Utilities Commission.

Cross talk

participate

Design: Sauer Graphics

The Communications Revolution
is now at your laundromat
and nine other Berkeley locations.

Community Memory

*invites you to celebrate the launch of the new,
city-wide, public access computer network
with a party at:*

Milt's Coin-Op

3055 Telegraph Avenue (at Webster)

Berkeley

Thursday, February 15, 1990 7-10 p.m.

Since 1977, Community Memory has nurtured a vision of universally accessible, easy-to-use computer networks to enhance community participation.

Join us for food, music, comedy, talk, door prizes.

We'd love to know you're coming: 415-841-1114

This project is supported by funds from the Telecommunications Education Trust, established by the California Public Utilities Commission.

Change

Respond

Forums

Share

Act

many to many communication to many to many communication to many to many communication to many to many communication to many to many communication to many to many communication to many to many communication to many to many communication to many to many communication to many to many communication to many to many communication

Community Memory
2617 San Pablo Avenue
Berkeley, CA 94702
415.841.1114

Cross talk

Participate

The Communications Revolution
is now at your laundromat
and nine other Berkeley locations.

Community Memory

*invites you to celebrate the launch of the new,
city-wide, public access computer network
with a party at:*

Milt's Coin-Op

3055 Telegraph Avenue (at Webster)
Berkeley

Thursday, February 15, 1990 7-10 p.m.

Since 1977, Community Memory has nurtured a vision of universally accessible, easy-to-use computer networks to enhance community participation.

Join us for food, music, comedy, talk, door prizes.

We'd love to know you're coming: 415-841-1114

This project is supported by funds from the Telecommunications Education Trust, established by the California Public Utilities Commission.

Change

Respond

Forums

Share

Act

many to many communication
many to many communication
many to many communication
many to many communication

Cross talk

Community Memory
2617 San Pablo Avenue
Berkeley, CA 94702
415.841.1114

Participate

Designer: Susan Graphics

CrossTalk

P a r t i c i p a t e

Design: Summer Graphics

Change

Respond

Forums

Share

Act

many to many communication
many to many communication
many to many communication
many to many communication
many to many communication

Community Memory
2617 San Pablo Avenue
Berkeley, CA 94702
415. 841. 1114

Cross talk

P a r t i c i p a t e . . .

Design: Samir Graphics

Community Memory

2617 San Pablo Avenue

Berkeley, CA 94702

415.841.1114

Cross talk

Participate

Cross talk

Participate

Change

Respond

FORUMS

Share

Act

many to many communication
to many to many communication
to many to many communication
to many to many communication
to many to many communication

Cross talk

Community Memory

2617 San Pablo Avenue

Berkeley, CA 94702

415.841.1114

Participate

Design: Sumner Graphics

Reading Messages

The second screen offers you three options: <HELP>, <FORUM>, and <EXIT>. Pick <FORUM> to see a list of topics.

- 1 First you must pick a TOPIC.
- 2 Next, pick a FORUM from the list of related forums.
- 3 Then, pick an INDEX WORD from the index word list.

A list of MESSAGES will appear on screen.

Use the ARROW KEYS to move through the message list.

Writing Messages

There are two ways to add messages of your own:

- 1 When you are in a FORUM, press F1 and pick <ADD>. You are on the way to adding a message to that FORUM.

-
- 2 Pick the <RESPOND> option in the top corner of the message you want to respond to. The message you write will then be attached to that message.

After you write your message, pick <FINISHED>.

Where to Find Us

- * Central Library, Shattuck and Kittredge
- * Claremont Library, 2940 Benvenue (at Ashby)
- * South Library, 1901 Russell (at MLK Jr. Way)
- * West Library, 1125 University (near San Pablo)
- * International House, 2299 Piedmont (top of Durant)
- * North Senior Center, 1901 Hearst (at MLK Jr. Way)
- * Milt's Coin-Op, 3055 Telegraph (at Webster)
- * Milt's Coin-Op II, 2483 Hearst (at Euclid)
- * Ecology Center Complex, 2530 San Pablo (between Parker & Blake)
- * S. Berk. Neighborhood Development Corp., 1767 Alcatraz (near Adeline)

Offices: 2617 San Pablo Ave., Berkeley, CA 94702 Ph: (415) 841-1114

A pocket guide to Community Memory

Berkeley's public access
information and resources exchange.

Move Highlight

The four ARROW KEYS move
the highlight around the screen
to words in brackets called
OPTIONS.

i.e.: <HELP>
<FORUM>
<EXIT>

Go

Pressing this key activates
the OPTION you highlighted.

You also need to press ENTER
after typing an author name,
password, or an index word.

Options

Press to see the OPTIONS
available to you at any point.

i.e.: <ADD> a message
<SPECIFY> an index word
<REFINE> the message list

Backup

Press to back up
one-step-at-a-time.

You may BACKUP all the way
to the first screen.

Use it whenever you change
your mind about requests or
OPTIONS.

Help

Press to receive HELP any time
you get stuck.

You will get specific instructions
on what to do at that point.

Reading Messages

The second screen offers you three options: <HELP>, <FORUM>, and <EXIT>. Pick <FORUM> to see a list of topics.

- 1 First you must pick a TOPIC.
- 2 Next, pick a FORUM from the list of related forums.
- 3 Then, pick an INDEX WORD from the index word list.

A list of MESSAGES will appear on screen.

Use the ARROW KEYS to move through the message list.

Writing Messages

There are two ways to add messages of your own:

- 1 When you are in a FORUM, press F1 and pick <ADD>. You are on the way to adding a message to that FORUM.

-
- 2 Pick the <RESPOND> option in the top corner of the message you want to respond to. The message you write will then be attached to that message.

After you write your message, pick <FINISHED>.

Where to Find Us

- * Central Library, Shattuck and Kittredge
- * Claremont Library, 2940 Benvenue (at Ashby)
- * South Library, 1901 Russell (at MLK Jr. Way)
- * West Library, 1125 University (near San Pablo)
- * International House, 2299 Piedmont (top of Durant)
- * North Senior Center, 1901 Hearst (at MLK Jr. Way)
- * Milt's Coin-Op, 3055 Telegraph (at Webster)
- * Milt's Coin-Op II, 2483 Hearst (at Euclid)
- * Ecology Center Complex, 2530 San Pablo (between Parker & Blake)
- * S. Berk. Neighborhood Development Corp., 1767 Alcatraz (near Adeline)

Offices: 2617 San Pablo Ave., Berkeley, CA 94702 Ph: (415) 841-1114

A pocket guide to
Community Memory

Berkeley's public access
information and resources exchange.

Move Highlight

The four ARROW KEYS move
the highlight around the screen
to words in brackets called
OPTIONS.

i.e.: <HELP>
<FORUM>
<EXIT>

Go

Pressing this key activates
the OPTION you highlighted.

You also need to press ENTER
after typing an author name,
password, or an index word.

F1 Options

Press to see the OPTIONS
available to you at any point.

i.e.: <ADD> a message
<SPECIFY> an index word
<REFINE> the message list

F2 Backup

Press to back up
one-step-at-a-time.

You may BACKUP all the way
to the first screen.

Use it whenever you change
your mind about requests or
OPTIONS.

F3 Help

Press to receive HELP any time
you get stuck.

You will get specific instructions
on what to do at that point.

Reading Messages

The second screen offers you three options: <HELP>, <FORUM>, and <EXIT>. Pick <FORUM> to see a list of topics.

- 1 First you must pick a TOPIC.
- 2 Next, pick a FORUM from the list of related forums.
- 3 Then, pick an INDEX WORD from the index word list.

A list of MESSAGES will appear on screen.
Use the ARROW KEYS to move through the message list.

Writing Messages

There are two ways to add messages of your own:

- 1 When you are in a FORUM, press F1 and pick <ADD>. You are on the way to adding a message to that FORUM.

-
- 2 Pick the <RESPOND> option in the top corner of the message you want to respond to. The message you write will then be attached to that message.

After you write your message, pick <FINISHED>.

Where to Find Us

- * Central Library, Shattuck and Kittredge
- * Claremont Library, 2940 Benvenue (at Ashby)
- * South Library, 1901 Russell (at MLK Jr. Way)
- * West Library, 1125 University (near San Pablo)
- * International House, 2299 Piedmont (top of Durant)
- * North Senior Center, 1901 Hearst (at MLK Jr. Way)
- * Milt's Coin-Op, 3055 Telegraph (at Webster)
- * Milt's Coin-Op II, 2483 Hearst (at Euclid)
- * Ecology Center Complex, 2530 San Pablo (between Parker & Blake)
- * S. Berk. Neighborhood Development Corp., 1767 Alcatraz (near Adeline)

Offices: 2617 San Pablo Ave., Berkeley, CA 94702 Ph: (415) 841-1114

A pocket guide to Community Memory

Berkeley's public access
information and resources exchange.

Move Highlight

The four ARROW KEYS move
the highlight around the screen
to words in brackets called
OPTIONS.

i.e.: <HELP>
<FORUM>
<EXIT>

Go

Pressing this key activates
the OPTION you highlighted.

You also need to press ENTER
after typing an author name,
password, or an index word.

Options

Press to see the OPTIONS
available to you at any point.

i.e.: <ADD> a message
<SPECIFY> an index word
<REFINE> the message list

Backup

Press to back up
one-step-at-a-time.

You may BACKUP all the way
to the first screen.

Use it whenever you change
your mind about requests or
OPTIONS.

Help

Press to receive HELP any time
you get stuck.

You will get specific instructions
on what to do at that point.

Reading Messages

The second screen offers you three options: <HELP>, <FORUM>, and <EXIT>. Pick <FORUM> to see a list of topics.

- 1 First you must pick a TOPIC.
- 2 Next, pick a FORUM from the list of related forums.
- 3 Then, pick an INDEX WORD from the index word list.

A list of MESSAGES will appear on screen.

Use the ARROW KEYS to move through the message list.

Writing Messages

There are two ways to add messages of your own:

- 1 When you are in a FORUM, press F1 and pick <ADD>. You are on the way to adding a message to that FORUM.

-
- 2 Pick the <RESPOND> option in the top corner of the message you want to respond to. The message you write will then be attached to that message.

After you write your message, pick <FINISHED>.

Where to Find Us

- * Central Library, Shattuck and Kittredge
- * Claremont Library, 2940 Benvenue (at Ashby)
- * South Library, 1901 Russell (at MLK Jr. Way)
- * West Library, 1125 University (near San Pablo)
- * International House, 2299 Piedmont (top of Durant)
- * North Senior Center, 1901 Hearst (at MLK Jr. Way)
- * Milt's Coin-Op, 3055 Telegraph (at Webster)
- * Milt's Coin-Op II, 2483 Hearst (at Euclid)
- * Ecology Center Complex, 2530 San Pablo (between Parker & Blake)
- * S. Berk. Neighborhood Development Corp., 1767 Alcatraz (near Adeline)

Offices: 2617 San Pablo Ave., Berkeley, CA 94702 Ph: (415) 841-1114

A pocket guide to
Community Memory

Berkeley's public access
information and resources exchange.

Move Highlight

The four ARROW KEYS move
the highlight around the screen
to words in brackets called
OPTIONS.

i.e.: <HELP>
<FORUM>
<EXIT>

Go

Pressing this key activates
the OPTION you highlighted.

You also need to press ENTER
after typing an author name,
password, or an index word.

F1 Options

Press to see the OPTIONS
available to you at any point.

i.e.: <ADD> a message
<SPECIFY> an index word
<REFINE> the message list

F2 Backup

Press to back up
one-step-at-a-time.

You may BACKUP all the way
to the first screen.

Use it whenever you change
your mind about requests or
OPTIONS.

F3 Help

Press to receive HELP any time
you get stuck.

You will get specific instructions
on what to do at that point.

Reading Messages

The second screen offers you three options: <HELP>, <FORUM>, and <EXIT>. Pick <FORUM> to see a list of topics.

- 1 First you must pick a TOPIC.
- 2 Next, pick a FORUM from the list of related forums.
- 3 Then, pick an INDEX WORD from the index word list.

A list of MESSAGES will appear on screen.

Use the ARROW KEYS to move through the message list.

Writing Messages

There are two ways to add messages of your own:

- 1 When you are in a FORUM, press F1 and pick <ADD>. You are on the way to adding a message to that FORUM.

- 2 Pick the <RESPOND> option in the top corner of the message you want to respond to. The message you write will then be attached to that message.

After you write your message, pick <FINISHED>.

Where to Find Us

- * Central Library, Shattuck and Kittredge
- * Claremont Library, 2940 Benvenue (at Ashby)
- * South Library, 1901 Russell (at MLK Jr. Way)
- * West Library, 1125 University (near San Pablo)
- * International House, 2299 Piedmont (top of Durant)
- * North Senior Center, 1901 Hearst (at MLK Jr. Way)
- * Milt's Coin-Op, 3055 Telegraph (at Webster)
- * Milt's Coin-Op II, 2483 Hearst (at Euclid)
- * Ecology Center Complex, 2530 San Pablo (between Parker & Blake)
- * S. Berk. Neighborhood Development Corp., 1767 Alcatraz (near Adeline)

Offices: 2617 San Pablo Ave., Berkeley, CA 94702 Ph: (415) 841-1114

A pocket guide to Community Memory

Berkeley's public access
information and resources exchange.

Move Highlight

The four ARROW KEYS move
the highlight around the screen
to words in brackets called
OPTIONS.

i.e.: <HELP>
<FORUM>
<EXIT>

Go

Pressing this key activates
the OPTION you highlighted.

You also need to press ENTER
after typing an author name,
password, or an index word.

Press to see the OPTIONS
available to you at any point.

i.e.: <ADD> a message
<SPECIFY> an index word
<REFINE> the message list

Press to back up
one-step-at-a-time.

You may BACKUP all the way
to the first screen.

Use it whenever you change
your mind about requests or
OPTIONS.

Press to receive HELP any time
you get stuck.

You will get specific instructions
on what to do at that point.

Reading Messages

The second screen offers you three options: <HELP>, <FORUM>, and <EXIT>. Pick <FORUM> to see a list of topics.

- 1 First you must pick a TOPIC.
- 2 Next, pick a FORUM from the list of related forums.
- 3 Then, pick an INDEX WORD from the index word list.

A list of MESSAGES will appear on screen.
Use the ARROW KEYS to move through the message list.

Writing Messages

There are two ways to add messages of your own:

- 1 When you are in a FORUM, press F1 and pick <ADD>. You are on the way to adding a message to that FORUM.

- 2 Pick the <RESPOND> option in the top corner of the message you want to respond to. The message you write will then be attached to that message.

After you write your message, pick <FINISHED>.

Where to Find Us

- * Main Library, Shattuck and Kittredge
- * Claremont Library, 2940 Benvenue (near Ashby)
- * South Library, 1901 Russell (near MLK Jr. Way)
- * West Library, 1125 University (near San Pablo)
- * International House, 2299 Piedmont (top of Durant)
- * North Senior Center, 1901 Hearst (at MLK Jr. Way)
- * Milt's Coin-Op, 3055 Telegraph (at Webster)

Offices: 2617 San Pablo Ave. Berkeley, CA 94702 Ph: 415-841-1114

A pocket guide to Community Memory

Berkeley's public access
information and resources exchange.

Move Highlight

The four ARROW KEYS move
the highlight around the screen
to words in brackets called
OPTIONS.

i.e.: <HELP>
<FORUM>
<EXIT>

Go

Pressing this key activates
the OPTION you highlighted.

You also need to press ENTER
after typing an author name,
password, or an index word.

Options

Press to see the OPTIONS
available to you at any point.

i.e.: <ADD> a message
<SPECIFY> an index word
<REFINE> the message list

Backup

Press to back up
one-step-at-a-time.

You may BACKUP all the way
to the first screen.

Use it whenever you change
your mind about requests or
OPTIONS.

Help

Press to receive HELP any time
you get stuck.

You will get specific instructions
on what to do at that point.

Reading Messages

The second screen offers you three options: <HELP>, <FORUM>, and <EXIT>. Pick <FORUM> to see a list of topics.

- 1 First you must pick a TOPIC.
- 2 Next, pick a FORUM from the list of related forums.
- 3 Then, pick an INDEX WORD from the index word list.

A list of MESSAGES will appear on screen.

Use the ARROW KEYS to move through the message list.

Writing Messages

There are two ways to add messages of your own:

- 1 When you are in a FORUM, press F1 and pick <ADD>. You are on the way to adding a message to that FORUM.

- 2 Pick the <RESPOND> option in the top corner of the message you want to respond to. The message you write will then be attached to that message.

After you write your message, pick <FINISHED>.

Where to Find Us

- * Central Library, Shattuck and Kittredge
- * Claremont Library, 2940 Benvenue (at Ashby)
- * South Library, 1901 Russell (at MLK Jr. Way)
- * West Library, 1125 University (near San Pablo)
- * International House, 2299 Piedmont (top of Durant)
- * North Senior Center, 1901 Hearst (at MLK Jr. Way)
- * Milt's Coin-Op, 3055 Telegraph (at Webster)
- * Milt's Coin-Op II, 2483 Hearst (at Euclid)
- * Ecology Center Complex, 2530 San Pablo (between Parker & Blake)
- * S. Berk. Neighborhood Development Corp., 1767 Alcatraz (near Adeline)

Offices: 2617 San Pablo Ave., Berkeley, CA 94702 Ph: (415) 841-1114

A pocket guide to
Community Memory

Berkeley's public access
information and resources exchange.

Move
Highlight

The four ARROW KEYS move
the highlight around the screen
to words in brackets called
OPTIONS.

i.e.: <HELP>
<FORUM>
<EXIT>

Go

Pressing this key activates
the OPTION you highlighted.

You also need to press ENTER
after typing an author name,
password, or an index word.

Press to see the OPTIONS
available to you at any point.

i.e.: <ADD> a message
<SPECIFY> an index word
<REFINE> the message list

Press to back up
one-step-at-a-time.

You may BACKUP all the way
to the first screen.

Use it whenever you change
your mind about requests or
OPTIONS.

Press to receive HELP any time
you get stuck.

You will get specific instructions
on what to do at that point.

Reading Messages

The second screen offers you three options: <HELP>, <FORUM>, and <EXIT>. Pick <FORUM> to see a list of topics.

- 1 First you must pick a TOPIC.
- 2 Next, pick a FORUM from the list of related forums.
- 3 Then, pick an INDEX WORD from the index word list.

A list of MESSAGES will appear on screen.

Use the ARROW KEYS to move through the message list.

Writing Messages

There are two ways to add messages of your own:

- 1 When you are in a FORUM, press F1 and pick <ADD>. You are on the way to adding a message to that FORUM.

-
- 2 Pick the <RESPOND> option in the top corner of the message you want to respond to. The message you write will then be attached to that message.

After you write your message, pick: <FINISHED>.

Where to Find Us

- * Central Library, Shattuck and Kittredge
- * Claremont Library, 2940 Benvenue (at Ashby)
- * South Library, 1901 Russell (at MLK Jr. Way)
- * West Library, 1125 University (near San Pablo)
- * International House, 2299 Piedmont (top of Durant)
- * North Senior Center, 1901 Hearst (at MLK Jr. Way)
- * Milt's Coin-Op, 3055 Telegraph (at Webster)
- * Milt's Coin-Op II, 2483 Hearst (at Euclid)
- * Ecology Center Complex, 2530 San Pablo (between Parker & Blake)
- * S. Berk. Neighborhood Development Corp., 1767 Alcatraz (near Adeline)

Offices: 2617 San Pablo Ave., Berkeley, CA 94702 Ph: (415) 841-1114

A pocket guide to
Community Memory

Berkeley's public access
information and resources exchange.

Move
Highlight

The four ARROW KEYS move
the highlight around the screen
to words in brackets called
OPTIONS.

i.e.: <HELP>
<FORUM>
<EXIT>

Go

Pressing this key activates
the OPTION you highlighted.

You also need to press ENTER
after typing an author name,
password, or an index word.

Options

Press to see the OPTIONS
available to you at any point.

i.e.: <ADD> a message
<SPECIFY> an index word
<REFINE> the message list

Backup

Press to back up
one-step-at-a-time.

You may BACKUP all the way
to the first screen.

Use it whenever you change
your mind about requests or
OPTIONS.

Help

Press to receive HELP any time
you get stuck.

You will get specific instructions
on what to do at that point.

FUJI FILM
MICROFILM SAFETY FILM

MF2DD

16mm Microfilm
100' 1000' 10000'

MI 16mm, 1000', 10000'

You will get specific information on what to do.

to MEMO

information

A pocket guide to Community Meetings

Berkeley's public access
information and resources exchange.

A pocket guide to
Community Meetings

A practical guide to
Community Memory

A practical guide to
Community Memory

Free to receive I nk.

... ..
... ..

