NYNEX and AGS decided to pull together.

AGS Computers, Inc., a $215 million professional services, software and information systems company, has become a wholly owned subsidiary of NYNEX Information Solutions Group, Inc., a NYNEX Company.

The combination becomes one of the largest commercial systems integrators in the country, with 5,000 people in 13 countries, a presence in 30 U.S. cities, and a majority of the Fortune 500 and Financial Times 500 companies as customers.

NYNEX and AGS are a well-balanced crew. AGS provides professional services, applications software and turnkey systems to finance, telecommunications, manufacturing and government organizations.

The NYNEX family of companies offers everything from computer networks, software and systems integration to the services provided by New England Telephone and New York Telephone.
